

Become a kitchen and bath design professional.

Daytona State College's Interior Design program now offers a Kitchen and Bath Specialization certificate.

Program features:

- Architectural Drawing and Computer Aided Drafting
- Practical Interior Applications
- Kitchen and Bath Design
- Lighting
- Building and Barrier Free Codes
- Materials and Estimating for Kitchen and Bath
- Sustainable Design
- Cooperative Education opportunity
- All courses taught by experienced, licensed and practicing professionals.

Turn your creativity into a rewarding career!

- Employees of kitchen and bath distributors earn an average of $76,000 per year.
- Last year, more than 36 percent of empty nesters and 43 percent of families with teenagers remodeled their kitchens.
- New and innovative computer techniques are used in modern kitchen and bath design.
- Many homeowners remodel their kitchen and baths to reduce electricity and water use.
- The kitchen and bath industry accounts for nearly $200 billion in annual revenue.

(Source: Kitchen and Bath Industry Outlook)

Enroll Today! Classes start Jan. 18, 2011.

For more information, please call (386) 506-4165, or email zuelchs@DaytonaState.edu.

DAYTONA STATE COLLEGE

A MEMBER OF THE FLORIDA COLLEGE SYSTEM

www.DaytonaState.edu